Town Of Waveland Elects Municipal Officers On Tuesday

Garfield Ladner Defeats Incumbent Thos. J. Bourgeois, Sr., For Mayor By One Vote—Dufour Re-Elected Marshal and Tax Collector, Leads Ticket

The Democratic Primary Election for municipal officers for the Town of Waveland, was held on Tuesday, November 17th, 1942. The election was conducted in a very quiet manner, with the voters going to and from the polls, casting their ballots for the men and women of their section.

The contest for Mayor was exceptionally close, the nominee having been elected by a majority of one vote. In this race a dispute arose as to who was actually the nominee, the returns of the managers showing that the incumbent, Thomas J. Bourgeois, Sr., had received a majority of one vote, not taking into consideration the votes that were cast under protest. The Municipal Democratic Executive Committee met on Wednesday evening, November 18th, and after considering the votes cast under protest, allowed certain votes to be counted, which gave Mr. Garfield Ladner a majority of one vote. The Democratic Executive Committee then proceeded to canvass the returns, and declare the nominees.

The official returns as promulgated by the Executive Committee are as follows:

FOR MAYOR:

Thomas J. Bourgeois, Sr. 128

Garfield Ladner 129

FOR MARSHAL AND TAX

COLLECTOR:

C. O. (Buddy) Dufour 157

Turner Soldini 101

FOR TREASURER:

Mrs. Ernest Bourgeois 142

H. Preston Vinet 117

FOR ALDERMAN 1ST WARD:

John A. Garza 5

Wm. Rühr 3

FOR ALDERMAN 3RD WARD:

Joseph Simon Bourgeois 65

Willie Bourgeois, Jr. 35

FOR ALDERMAN 4TH WARD:

Gasper Burgdahl 6

R. G. Hubbard, Jr. 37

David Mollere 11

At a previous meeting of the Executive Committee Mr. Sylvaneous

(Bob) Moran was declared the nominee as Alderman of the 2nd

Ward, and Mr. John J. Bordages

was declared the nominee as Street

Commissioner, neither of these gentlemen

having opposition.

It is our wish that the officers elected will carry on their duties in an efficient, businesslike manner and give to our neighboring town a real business administration.

The newly elected Mayor, the Hon. Garfield Ladner, is a native

born son of the Town of Waveland, having lived there all of his life.

He is a grandson of Mr. John B.

Favre, the oldest living citizen in Hancock County; and the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alcide Ladner. He is married to the former Miss Lottie

Bourgeois and is the father of eight children. This will be his first experience in public office. We wish for him a successful administration.

Hon. Clement O. Dufour, the present Marshal and Tax Collector, who was re-elected and received more votes than any other candidate, has resided in Waveland for the past several years. "Buddy" is highly efficient and is making the Town a very good officer, which is attested by the splendid vote he received.

Mrs. Ernest Bourgeois, who is the daughter of Mr. John J. Bordages, has served the town of Waveland

for a number of years as Treasurer,

having succeeded her deceased husband in this office. Mrs. Bourgeois at the present time is at Hotel Dieu in New Orleans, suffering from an attack of pneumonia, and on the day of election she could not be present.

However, she was elected by a handsome vote.

Hon. John Garza, who was elected

Alderman of the First Ward, has resided on Nicholson avenue for the past few years, having retired from active work; he is a new comer in town politics.

Hon. Joseph Simon Bourgeois, who was re-elected Alderman of the Third

Ward, has served in this capacity for a number of years and has been a life-long resident of the town.

Hon. R. G. Hubbard, Jr., who was elected Alderman of the Fourth Ward

IN SOUTH PACIFIC

PVT. WALLACE A. DEPREO

Pvt. Wallace A. Depreo is the son of Mrs. Adolph Depreo, of Kilm, and the late Mr. Depreo. He is a member of Company G., 145th Infantry, and at the present time is in the South Pacific.

SCRAP DRIVE

Last spring many highly successful campaigns were conducted by the school children of the nation to collect salvage materials that are so urgently needed in the war effort.

During the past few weeks, the boys and girls of Hancock County, united in a great effort to collect every bit of scrap iron and rubber available in Hancock County and great heaps of scrap were brought to the growing pile which was located on South Beach Boulevard and Court Streets where Mr. Al Voight, Chairman of the Scrap Drive, received, weighed and paid the children for the poundage.

The deadline had at first been designated as November 14th but this was extended until November 20th and a great deal more of scrap has been accumulated in the scrap heap, and the records of the contestants have been increased.

However, as this is the last week for the Scrap Drive among school children of the city and county schools, all receipts for poundage of scrap sold to Mr. Voight will be required to be turned over to the school principal for November 20th in order that the children will be eligible to compete for the prizes offered at the opening of the contest several weeks ago.

Death of Miss Jean McDonald

Miss Jean McDonald, aged 16, was accidentally killed on Sunday just outside the West Memphis city limits when the car in which she was riding left the highway, struck a tree and turned over into a 12-foot bayou.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy McDonald of Memphis and the news of the tragedy cast a gloom over our city because of the many friends of the family. She was the granddaughter of Judge and Mrs. W. T. McDonald who made their home here for so many years, who still have a host of friends here who recall her father as a little boy going to school. There is general sorrow that this loss should have come to the Mr. and Mrs. McDonald and to the aged grandparents and other relatives. Their close relatives here also have the sympathy of the town.

Full particulars of the accident are not known. Other occupants of the car were Hal Davidson Crenshaw, Jr., aged 16, Guy Grown Jennings, Jr., aged 17, both of whom were killed and Miss Ellen Douglas Galloway, aged 15, who is in a Memphis hospital.

nominate without opposition as Street Commissioner is the dean of Waveland officials, having served the town for four years as Marshal and Tax Collector and Town Street Commissioner, and when this office was divided he was elected Street Commissioner, which position he has held for a number of years. The high esteem in which he is held by the people of the Town of Waveland is best attested by the fact that he did not have opposition, being the only officer elected from the town at large, without opposition.

"WOMEN AT WAR WEEK" NOVEMBER 22 TO NOVEMBER 28

On Thursday there will be a War Savings Barn Dance in the Woodmen of the World Hall from 8:30 P. M. to 1:30 A. M. admission to which will be a 25c War Savings Stamp for students and two 25c War Savings Stamps for adults. Refreshments will be sold for War Savings Stamps.

Friday will be School Day when all school children will be requested to buy stamps and bonds.

Saturday will be "Stamp Yourself an American Day."

Hancock County has enjoyed an enviable record in every call made upon it and we feel certain that "Women at War Week" with Mrs. Anderson as chairman of the Bond and Stamp Sale Drive and the splendid program for stimulating sales will go over the top and exceed every expectation of our county.

Letter of Congratulation

The following is a copy of a letter received by the editor from Mr. Russell Ellzey, Executive Secretary for Mississippi, of the War Production Board and former Mississippi Congressman.

"Dear Mr. Favre:

You have been very nice in sending us the copy of your newspaper publication. I am writing this letter specifically to congratulate you on the plan of publishing the list of your honor roll on one page in each publication of your paper. That certainly does have a fine appeal to me and I think such a plan is calculated to do lots of good wherever your paper is read.

Sincerely yours,
RUSSELL ELLZEY
Executive Secretary for Mississippi."

DEATH OF FERDINAND EGLOFF

Former City Official Died Wednesday Morning—Funeral Services Held Thursday Evening

On Wednesday morning at 3:15 o'clock, Mr. Ferdinand Henry Egloff, died at his home on Ballantine street. Born in Bay St. Louis on April 20th, 1889, the son of the late Henry F. Egloff and Mary Wagner, and having lived here his entire life. He attended Saint Stanislaus Parochial School, and in early manhood married Miss Marie Surcouf.

He was one of the best known men in Hancock County, having served in public office for many years. During the time that Bay St. Louis was under the Aldermanic form of Government, Mr. Egloff served as Alderman, and from 1908 until 1927 he served as City Tax Collector and Assessor. When the form of Government was changed in our city, he served as Commissioner of Finance for four years. He was an efficient public official; kind, considerate and charitable.

Many of his acts of charity in this community will never be known, not even to the members of his own family. He was of a quiet, unassuming nature, not prone to talk of his accomplishments, nor the good deeds that he performed.

He was a member of the Macabees and a former member of the Knights of Columbus and Woodmen of the World.

Funeral services were held from the Fahey Funeral Home on Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock, with services at the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf and interment in Cedar Rest Cemetery.

Surviving the deceased are his wife; four sons: Henry F., Long Beach, Miss., John A., Paul A., and Thomas W., all of Bay St. Louis; and two daughters, Mrs. Charles Albreast of Castleberry, Alabama, and Miss Vivian Egloff of this city. He is also survived by five grandchildren.

The death of Mr. Egloff is deeply deplored. Bay St. Louis has lost an outstanding citizen. His memory will be cherished by those who knew him, and his good deeds will be ever remembered by many of those who received his help in time of need.

We extend to his family our sincere sympathy.

"WOP" GLOVER ENTERS SERVICE OF COUNTRY

Fourth Son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Glover To Enter Armed Forces

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Glover of this city this week gave their fourth son, Harry (Wop) Glover, Jr., to the war effort when Wop left New Orleans on Monday night for Norfolk, Virginia, where he expects to become a Chief Specialist in the Navy Physical Education Division under the direction of Commander Gene Tunney, U. S. N., having enlisted in this branch of service.

Wop resigned his position as coach at Saint Aloysius College in New Orleans to enlist and his leave was greatly deplored by the faculty, student body and members of St. Aloysius Mothers Club who all presented him with handsome gifts.

Wop had been coach at the college for the past four years and had made the St. Aloysius team one of the finest in the city.

Like his three brothers, Wop Glover is a graduate of St. Stanislaus, and Tulane University and played with the Green Wave in the Rose Bowl in 1931 against the University of Southern California's team. After his graduation from Tulane, Wop coached at John Carroll University in Cleveland, St. Stanislaus College and St. Aloysius.

As a fitting tribute to their beloved coach, Wop Glover, the St. Aloysius college paper "The Aloysian" dedicated its November issue to Coach Glover and bade him "Good Luck, Wop."

The other sons of Mr. and Mrs. Glover who are also in service are David who is a cockswain in the U. S. Coast Guard and is stationed at Morgan City, Louisiana, volunteering for this service a year ago since last October. David is also a graduate of St. Stanislaus and Tulane University.

Anthony (Tugs) Glover graduated from St. Stanislaus and attended John Carroll University and Tulane University, volunteering last May for service in the U. S. Coast Guard and is now yeoman 3rd class at Louisville, Kentucky, and expects very shortly to be aboard ship.

Joseph Glover graduated from St. Stanislaus and attended St. Louis University for two years, volunteering in the U. S. Marines. He received his basic training at San Diego, California, and is now studying electrical engineering at Camp Logan, Utah.

Bay St. Louis is justly proud of the Glover family in their contribution of their sons to their country's service and the prayers and good wishes of the community go with these boys for their safe return to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Glover.

A VITAL RIGHT

NATURAL resources are a basic cause of war. Nations which don't have them strive to gain them; nations which have them try to keep them; war itself cannot be waged to a successful termination without their products. For this, the conclusion could easily be drawn that natural resources are a curse. They most decidedly are when they are exploited by a few crazed maniacs with hypnotic power over millions of people.

But the use to which our natural resources here in America have been put during the last century and a half, show that our oil, coal and metal mines, timber, water power, etc., can be the greatest of blessings. Never has the world seen such comfort and security for the common man as has been attained by their use in this country. All of the creative genius of free men centered on securing a rising plane of existence for the individual. A form of government and a "way of doing business" made it possible to satisfy this urge. The opportunity for every man to make his living independently and free of government domination, is our basic law. This protects our system of free enterprise. As long as it is preserved, officialism cannot control votes to destroy it.

Our industries were developed to their present gigantic productivity by countless men—unknown men—free men. Until war came, every ounce of the collective energy of these men went toward making a better life for the common citizen. This is as it should have been, and will be again, providing our people, while making every sacrifice necessary to win the war, cling to one vital right from which stems all other rights—the right of every American citizen in peace time to be the master of his own destiny, not the servant of a socialized state as in Germany.

A DANGEROUS ASSUMPTION

TOO many people assume that an all-out war has to be fought by an all-out dictator government. This is not true. And it could never be true because modern war requires gigantic production and governments are not producers. At best, they can force the citizen to produce under compulsion, after the citizen has failed to do so for one reason or another.

America is outproducing Europe's slaves because free men are doing the job. If they are allowed to finish the war as such, there is not the slightest doubt as to the outcome. Victory will be ours. Our industries are rolling at an unheard-of pace. But they could do even more if bureaucrats and the people would once and for all realize who must keep mines and factories going full blast. Let government place the orders under proper supervision—American industry will do the rest.

Our armament and plane makers, our utilities, our railroads have proved they can accomplish miracles. The oil industry has been ready for months to begin production of synthetic rubber, awaiting only the "go" signal from officialism. Our metal and timber resources are being utilized to the fullest by the ingenuity of private management, and the coal industry has provided the nation with the biggest stock pile of fuel in history. All of these things have been and are being done by private citizens. They, and not the bureaucrats, should get the credit.

EDITOR'S BIRTHDAY

GEORGE P. Money, editor for The Daily Herald for 24 years, today is observing his 75th birthday. Mr. Money, a gentleman and scholar of the old South, believes that education comes from studying, reading, thinking, listening and observing, has taken a great pride in the daily presentation of his editorials over his long period of years and with few exceptions has written every line of copy that fills the space reserved for editorials.

Mr. Money—unaware of today's comment by another member of the staff, was born in Hinds county, Mississippi, Nov. 16, 1867. He has done farm work, was employed in a store, in a geological survey, helped make a map of the area around the District of Columbia. He was file clerk of the house document room, chief clerk folding room, House of Representatives, was in charge of circulation of the Chattanooga Evening News and was co-publisher with Governor J. K. Vandaman of the Greenwood Enterprise. He read law at Carrollton, Miss., where he was admitted to the bar in 1891, and at the same time taught Latin in a seminary. He practiced law for 25 years and was president of the county bar association of which he is now an honorary member.

He was assistant attorney of the territory of New Mexico 1893-1900 and during the war became editor of The Daily Herald. He was appointed deputy US clerk and commissioner in 1918, and still holds these positions.

Always a busy man, Mr. Money never hesitates to pause in his work, even at a sacrifice to his own personal time, to advise a friend or explain some matter of business in careful detail to make it easier for his fellow man.

Mr. Money's own philosophy of life is that he always was willing to learn. He always tried to spend less than he made, never went on a strike, always was loyal to his employer, made it a rule to give more than he received, always thought there was some good in everybody—but that some people were successful in concealing it, always believed that a man can know too many things but not do enough, always believed that the Democrats are as good as any other people, always believed in the United States, believes in fewer vanished school desks and castellated buildings, but believes in a vanished mind and towering intellect. No finer gentleman lived—and no man has contributed more in his humble way to his fellow man than George P. Money—a friend and scholar.—Daily Herald, Gulfport-Biloxi, Nov. 16, 1942.

DWE have come in contact with Mr. Money in his official position, as deputy clerk of the Federal Court at Biloxi, on many occasions, and have found him to be one of the most capable, affable and courteous public officials with whom we have ever transacted business.

May God spare him for many years to come, and may he continue to rise to greater heights in the newspaper world. It is a privilege to know this man and to be able to join with his many friends in extending to him a happy birthday greeting.

American Red Cross

The Mississippi Camp and Hospital Council held its monthly meeting at Keesler Field, Wednesday afternoon. This council takes in Hancock and Harrison counties. The object of the council is to furnish and equip the hospital and recreation rooms at Keesler Field. Working through the Red Cross, all civic organizations in the various towns of these two counties contributed to the cause. Harold Weston, chairman of the council, reports that all articles asked for this month have been delivered to the Field.

St. Joseph Academy Junior Red Cross Group is making favors and nut cups to be sent to the patients in the station hospital at Keesler Field for Thanksgiving. Miss Kathleen Renshaw is in charge of this group.

Anyone who would like to contribute any article for the recreation rooms or hospital are asked to get in touch with the Red Cross office, 185, or Mr. Weston No. 10. Subscriptions to current magazines, old radios that are repairable, reading lamps, etc., are some of the articles especially desired.

The Staff Assistants' Corps met for their weekly lecture at the home of Mrs. Frank Kiefer, Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Dean King, publicity man for the Gulf Coast division of the Mississippi Power Company gave an excellent talk on "Public Relations."

ORTTE THEATER STARTS CHRISTMAS TREE ARRANGEMENT

As the Christmas season approaches many requests for a Christmas tree have come to the attention of those who were connected with the combined free show and tree last year at Ortte Theater.

Last year hundreds of children were made happy with gifts of toys, candies and fruit plus an extra special show arranged for their enjoyment. There were many grown-ups who witnessed this happy scene and they in turn were happier by that fact.

The Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, S. J. A. Girls, Rotary Club and many individuals contributed their time and donations toward the tree. Every one will be needed again as this year we will strive to make it bigger and better in the interest and welfare of the youngsters of Hancock County.

We should be thankful that although we are at war we can still open our hearts at Christmas time now more than ever and all children should be kept happy.

Children who bring a toy new or in fairly good condition will be admitted free at the Theater on Wednesday and Thursday nights. All receipts on Wednesday and Thursday nights will go toward the Xmas tree fund.

Everyone is invited to the tree but naturally the under privileged children are favored first. Anyone who cares to donate time, gifts, toys or money please contact Ortte Theater.

ADAM LORCH, SR., 82, DIES IN NEW ORLEANS

Bay St. Louis friends were grieved to learn of the death of Adam Lorch, Sr., who died at Touro Infirmary on Saturday.

Mr. Lorch could almost be claimed as a Bay St. Louisian for he and his estimable family spent so many summers here—sometimes remaining late in the fall.

One by one his family left him—first his wife, then his son Adam II and then his daughter, Miss Irwina Lorch and there was only he and his daughter, Miss Carrie Lorch to carry on.

He had lived past his three score years and ten having attained the age of 82 and his death was not a surprise.

Besides his daughter he leaves three grandchildren, Adam Lorch III, Mrs. Jahncke, the former Miss Betty Lorch and Jack Lorch, who is in the service.

Mr. Lorch was a native and life long resident of New Orleans, was manager of the Cotton Trade Warehouse, Inc. and one time member of the City Council. He retired from business eight years ago.

Funeral services were held from the House of Bultman, New Orleans, on Sunday afternoon with interment in Metairie cemetery.

Mr. Lorch loved life and was an ardent lover of fishing. He loved the great outdoors but the many losses of those dear to him made the desire to live less strong. His friends will always remember his hearty laugh.

To Miss Lorch goes the deep sympathy of their host of friends here as well as sympathy of the Echo.

Congressional Sidelights

by Congressman Wm. M. Colmer

18-19 Year Draft

Legend has it that General Sherman, on the banks of the Pearl River in Mississippi some eighty-odd years ago, made the statement that "War is hell." Regardless of the authenticity of this statement, the truth of it was indelibly imprinted upon the minds of the American nation in the past few days when the President signed the bill passed by the Congress at his instance, calling into the armed service of the country the boys of the Republic in the ages of 18 and 19.

We doubt that in the ten years of service which we have had in the Congress either we or any other Member of the Congress has been called upon to face a harder issue than that presented by the request for the service of these teen-age boys. Many of us have boys of that age in our own families. We, therefore, were in a position of sympathy with the hundreds of thousands of other parents of boys of the same age who will be inducted into the ranks of the nation's fighters in this its greatest crisis and in this the country's greatest war. But we, together with the other Members of the Congress, were faced with the acute problem of deciding this issue upon our own knowledge of the necessity for such drastic action or to act upon the recommendation of the military experts and the President who presumably had superior knowledge of the needs of our Army and a better realization of the gravity of the situation.

The Congress by an overwhelming vote accepted the recommendations of the military experts who claimed that it was necessary to have the service of these boys. And while the consent of the Congress was reluctantly given, it nevertheless was given. The result is that many of these youngsters will be called into the service of their country within the next few months.

Much controversy was waged over the question of whether or not these young men should receive a year's military training prior to being called into combat duty. The President and the military experts again insisted most vehemently that such a restriction would be most unwise and dangerous. Among other arguments advanced by them, were very effective, was the one that if such a limitation was placed in the law the older men would be sent first and these youngsters would necessarily have to be trained in separate units of their own; that inevitably the result would be that when and if these boys went into combat they would go as units of young men and would not have the benefit of the discretion and experience of the older men; that in such cases it would be impossible that whole divisions of young men would be called upon to face older and seasoned troops of the enemy, and that the result would be, in all probability, disastrous. So, again, the President and the military experts won out.

The Election

In Mississippi the average voter thinks of elections in August and rarely pays any attention to the general elections in November. But in the country as a whole, where the two-party system exists, the November election is what counts. In the general election held on November 3rd, much to the surprise of the Administration leaders and to the Republicans themselves, there was a decided turn-over in the Congress.

The result of sweeping Republican gains at the polls is that the Administration has had its top-heavy majority in the Senate substantially curtailed and its overwhelming majority in the House cut to a bare majority. Many attempts have been made to analyze the reasons for this political set-up. Chief among the reasons favorable to the Administration's favorable attitude toward labor and less favorable attitude to the farmers. This, no doubt, was a substantial contributing factor, but many other reasons also entered into it. But whatever may be the reasons the net result is that the Administration has a bare working majority and can no longer have its way unchallenged in the Congress.

CHRIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
DEDICATED ARMISTICE DAY
AS DAY OF PRAYER

The congregation of Christ Episcopal Church dedicated November 11, Armistice Day, as a day of prayer when all members gathered and remembered in prayer all those boys from the congregation who are now in the service of their country.

The service flag of the church was proudly displayed as a reminder of the boys who are serving in different branches of the Army and Navy and the Rev. Warwick Aiken led his pious flock in prayer.

LIBRARY NOTES

The library board is reminding you that Tuesday, November 24, is the Book Review, that Mrs. Dabney is the reviewer and that "Washington is Like That" is the book. Keep the date in mind—Tuesday, November 24, at 3:15 p. m., at the Episcopal Parish House. This will in no way conflict with the Tea for the buying of bonds on that date. Be sure to attend the Book Review and you will have time to go to the tea.

The library is in receipt of a shipment of books from the Cloverbook Home for the Blind. Among those in the collection are: Keplinger's "Washington is Like That" and Rawling's "Cross Creek."

Our old man are doing well share. Here at home the last we can do is put 10¢ of our income in War Bonds for our share in America.

THUNDERING DRAMA
"WAKE ISLAND" AT A. & G. SUNDAY-MONDAY

The dramatization of one of the most spectacular battles of this war will be on view when Paramount's "Wake Island" comes to the A. & G. Theater Sunday and Monday, November 22-23.

The gripping reenactment of the epic stand of a handful of courageous Marines who staved off Jap invasion for fourteen days, features a great cast headed by Brian Donlevy, Robert Preston and MacDonald Carey. Also included in the roster of players are Albert Dekker, Walter Abel, Barbara Britton and William Bendix.

Insuring authenticity of detail, "Wake Island" was filmed with the cooperation of the United States Marine Corps. John Farrow, distinguished Hollywood director and himself a Lieutenant Commander in the British Navy until recently invalidated out of service, directed the new film drama.

It is thrilling, vital drama that the new picture promises as entertainment, plus the essential meaning of this war and what it entails. The subject should never be forgotten and "Wake Island" telling, as it does, the story in terms of human, dramatic events will help see to it that it never shall happen again.

"Wake Island" brings to the screen a mighty piece of screen entertainment, and what with the able hands that have fashioned it, it will measure up to the immense task it must perform—to make plain its vital message and to be a picture of exceptional entertainment worth. From all accounts it is.

"Wake Island" recapitulates in its story the whole stand, the sinking of a Jap cruiser by our aircraft, the many times invasion attempts were repelled, the emotions experienced by Marines and civilians as the battle was being fought.

"Wake Island" is definitely the picture of our times.

GUEST SPEAKER AT NEW ORLEANS

Mrs. Caroline Dale Snedeker was guest speaker at the Louise McGee School, New Orleans on Wednesday, November 18 in keeping with Book Week. Mrs. Snedeker spoke on Writing with special reference to her own writing. She said in part that the fun of writing was in the adventure writers had in seeking material for the foundation of their writing. She told of one of her most interesting adventures which led her to the Isle of Skye. A stranger came to the town of New Harmony, which incidentally was founded by Mrs. Snedeker's ancestor Robert Dale Owen more than 100 years ago staying only a short time and when he left no one knew from whence he came or where he went and the only clue to this identity was that he called himself Lord of the Isle and Earl of Skye. So in her search for historic background for a book Mrs. Snedeker while in Europe began to trace this man and in doing so found the Isle of Skye and though he had never been there his diary was found which was later published by the Indiana Historical Society and Mrs. Snedeker was sent a copy. Her talk on the Isle of Skye is charming and is always the delight of her hearers and always is an inspiration for anyone who has a desire to write.

Mrs. Snedeker is a musician and writer known here and abroad and is the cousin of Miss Louise A. Crawford where she now makes her home. Following the talk a reception was given honoring Mrs. Snedeker. Mrs. Benjamin Yancy was responsible for this treat to the student body and patrons of the Louise S. McGee School.

While in New Orleans Mrs. Snedeker was the guest of Mrs. Kenneth B. Thompson.

HOMECOMING DAY
AT ST. STANISLAUS
SUNDAY, NOV. 29TH

Of all the dates in the football season Homecoming is by far the most important and eagerly anticipated affair of the year. Brother Peter, President of St. Stanislaus, recently set aside November 29th as the day best suited for that annual gathering. On this traditional day Dads and Grads from all walks of life come to St. Stanislaus to pay their respects to their Alma Mater. Homecoming, besides being an opportunity for renewing old friendships, also helps the members of the Alumni recall pleasant memories of their carefree days in school.

Registration for the Alumni will be at the school library beginning at nine in the morning as usual. At Mid-day a tasty barbecue dinner will be served under the shady oaks on the campus.

At 2:30 P. M. the feature attraction, that is, the football game between the Rock-A-Chaws and McGill, will provide the entertainment. Five years have elapsed since both eleven clashed and therefore this year's renewal of football rivalry is looked forward to with much enthusiasm. In the six games played so far between the two institutions McGill has won three and tied in a fourth. The Rocks are out to get a certain measure of revenge. Results of games played this year with teams on the schedule of both schools slightly favor the local team. However, McGill always rises to great heights when tackling St. Stanislaus and a very close game is expected.

Congressman Commented

Congressman John E. Rankin of the first Mississippi district was one of several southern congressmen who fought hard against the bill to make it unlawful for any state to require the payment of a poll tax as a prerequisite for voting. Mr. Rankin pointed out with eloquence and force that the bill in congress was entirely unconstitutional in that it proposed to interfere with the rights and powers of the respective states charged under the federal constitution with the duty of electing congressmen by the standard of voting set up under their own constitutions, and decisions by the United States Supreme Court holding that congress had no right to interfere with a state. The bill is yet to pass the Senate and the southern states are looking to Sen. Tom Connally of Texas to lead a filibuster against it. In his attitude in congress Mr. Rankin represented the sentiment of Mississippi. Jamie Whitten of the Second district and Will Whittington of the third district ably supported the opposition to the bill, as did other Mississippi members.

Estimate on Cotton

The Census Bureau gave out a new estimate on the 1942 cotton crop last week, lowering the estimate of a month ago by approximately a half million bales, the November estimate being 13,329,000 bales. The estimated production in Mississippi is 2,010,000 bales on a basis of 392 pounds of lint cotton per average acre. The census report shows that up to November first there had been ginned 9,725,443 bales, and in Mississippi 1,685,592 bales had been ginned to November first.

A report comes from Washington that Ross Collins, who will retire from Congress on January third, has been offered a Lieut.-Colonelcy in the army and would be assigned to the finance division. But Mr. Collins has declined the offer on the grounds that he has arranged to return to the private practice of law, with an office in Meridian and one in Washington.

Loans to Farmers

The sum of $5,500,000 has been allotted to the Farm Security Administration with which to make loans to Mississippi families in the low income class, for the year 1943. This is about a million dollars less than the 1942 allotment for the same purpose.

Raking Around

Mrs. Hallie Carter Stirling, wife of former Attorney General J. B. Stirling, died at the family home in Jackson last week. The anti-lynching bill which stirred up so much race feeling last year has been introduced in congress again by Representative Geyer of Kansas. Both houses of congress have passed the "teen age" draft law and before this is in print it will be the law of the United States. Henry J. Kaiser has built a 10-ton cargo ship in one week, and that is the world's best record. Under a new order gasoline rationing will not begin until December 2nd. Farmers are advised to save all baling wire used this year to be used again next year. The annual football game between the University and Mississippi State will be played at State on November 21st, Saturday of this week. It is said that at the end of October there were still in the hands of the manufacturers 1,944,000 pairs of nylon hose, and the demand is 8,500,000 pairs per month. Every man in the town of D'Lo eligible for military duty is now in some branch of the service. From Pearl Harbor to the middle of October the Allies sunk 368 Japanese ships of all classes, including 24 cruisers, 45 destroyers and 29 submarines.

PRIMARILY Mississippi is rural. In the terms of her predominating farm population she is the most agricultural state in the Union. Because of this, it was fitting that Claude R. Wickard, United States Secretary of Agriculture, should have launched America's Thanksgiving and FOOD FOR FREEDOM program in a Mississippi village in October.

Food is as essential to victory as ships, tanks, planes, and guns, and those who plow, sow and reap are as vital to victory as those who labor in a munitions plant.

As we glorify men on assembly lines, have we not overlooked the task that the teeming millions of men, women and children perform, who till our fields and toil on farms? Are we not as much the granary as we are the arsenal of democracy?

We have much to be thankful for in an abundant harvest, and in the patriotism and productivity of Mississippians who contribute so much to the nation's colossal effort to feed and clothe the men who fight for freedom.

WITH THE FISHERMEN AND OTHER SPORTS

By KANCHU KETCHEM

FRIDAY, November 13, was anything but unlucky day for the fishermen who tried their luck on Jordan River at the Dixie Fisheries.
